The framework is very serious and there is a good Quality of education

There is a very good success rate for the Brevet des collèges
Nearly 100 % of the students got their Diploma.

People from « la ligue de l'enseignement » often come to speak about difficult subjects such as the difference between boys and girls.

The framework is very serious and there is a good Quality of education.

There are also fun and creative projects.

The visit of people from outside the school : a journalist and a writer
